FREIGHT CARAnd Three Men Were Killed
Near Newton Hook, N. Y.

ONE SCALDED TO DEATH

New York Central Train in Wreck When Freight Car Projected Over the Main Track—One Man Was Killed Outright.Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 11.—Three trainmen were killed early this morning at Newton Hook when a New York Central freight train was derailed.The dead are:
Baggage-master Froy, Fireman Robert Holes.It was a train which left New York City at midnight. While it was passing Newton Hook, which is near Albany, the engine derailed and a freight car standing off the track on a switch. Baggagemaster Froy, whose home was in Buffalo, was killed outright in the wreck.
Engineer Fendell jumped and both his legs were broken. He was taken to the hospital, where he died shortly afterwards. The fireman was caught under the fire-box and was slowly scalded to death.

REAR END COLLISION.

Paper Train Runs Into Freight at Middletown, R. I.Middletown, R. I., July 11.—A locomotive was badly damaged and three freight cars demolished in a rear-end collision between a special paper train and a freight train on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad here yesterday. No one was injured.The freight was taking a siding when the special, consisting of locomotive and baggage car, which was bound from Newport for Fall River, smashed into the rear end and three cars were thrown off the rails and splintered up.
The contents, including a carload of beef, was strewn along the track. There was a heavy fog at the time and it is thought that on this account the engineer of the special could not distinguish the signals.

BODY IN ABANDONED WELL.

Casket Found in Well at Newton Hook.

Water a Suicide.

Danvers, Mass., July 11.—Standing upright in seven feet of water in an abandoned well on the summer estate of William C. Bennett of Boston, the body of an unidentified man was found yesterday. The heavy logs which had covered the well had been pulled partly aside, leaving an aperture barely large enough for a man to squeeze through.The body was discovered by a Polish farm hand, who, while crossing the field, stopped to get a drink at the well. He pushed the logs further aside, and as he leaned over was astounded to find a man in the water. Medical Examiner Horace K. Foster of Peabody was summoned and after viewing the body was inclined to the belief that it was a case of suicide. The position of the body and the fact that there were no marks upon it aiding him in reaching his conclusion.
He has not, however, made his official report.An examination of the clothing and effects of the dead man failed to reveal anything that would give an inkling of his identity. He was apparently about 45 years old and weighed about 175 pounds. He had the appearance of being a laborer. Dr. Foster was of the opinion that the body had been in the water about eight days.

DROWNED IN QUARRY HOLE.

Ricardo Aja, Aged 17, Lost His Life at Quincy, Mass.Quincy, Mass., July 11.—Ricardo Aja, 17 years old, who boarded at 14 Kildare street, was drowned yesterday afternoon while bathing in Ballou's quarry. Aja in company with two other young men, Bismonte Cannalese and Ritoalano Pi-jano, went to the quarry hole because of the excessive heat. None could swim so they splashed about in the water which covered a ledge at the side of the quarry hole.The water at this point was not very deep. It was about 15 feet deep. Aja over the edge of the shelving ledge and fell into deep water. It is supposed that he struck on some rock at the bottom as he did not resurface.His two companions were so frightened that they did not know what to do, but another young man, whose name the police did not get, dove to the bottom of the quarry, but could not locate the body. The police tried until dark with grappling irons, but were unable to get any trace of it. Another try was made this morning.Aja was a Spaniard by birth and was working as an apprentice boy in a granite shed here. He is survived by his father and mother in Spain.
